

Emerging Artist Bursary 2022

Deadline: 5pm, Friday March

25th 2022

Information for applicants

Age & Opportunity believes that the arts is particularly important and beneficial as we age, and has long been a supporter of older artists.

The Bealtaine Festival is 27 years old in 2022 and is Ireland's only festival dedicated to celebrating the arts and creativity as we age. Part of our work involves supporting the participation and representation of older people in the arts, including honouring and giving a platform to older artists. Similarly, we have a significant history in developing professional development training for artists across generations, as well as supporting arts networks and best practice through partnerships with Dance Ireland, Visual Artists Ireland, Irish Theatre Institute, Irish Writers Centre and more.

Emerging Artist Bursary

Age & Opportunity recognises that many people don't have the time or resources to take up artistic practice when they are younger. For these artists, getting older enables a freeing up of responsibilities, allowing more time for pursuing existing and new artistic interests.

The Age & Opportunity inaugural Emerging Artist Bursary aims to encourage and support older artists who are at an early stage in their career. We would like to celebrate the determination and achievements of someone in the second half of their life who has embarked on a full-time artistic path with a view to becoming a professional artist.

The Bursary is specifically intended to afford time and space for an outstanding emerging artist to develop their practice through buying time to work, (including materials). It is our hope that this Bursary would lead to a presentation at Bealtaine 2022/2023, although we recognise that this may not be possible in all cases.

Please note that there is a separate award for professional development (which includes training, etc.).

Notes on terms

*For the purposes of this Bursary, we define an emerging artist as someone in the early years of establishing a professional career*who may have returned to third level education to pursue an artform, or who has some artistic experience but has yet to receive a formal showcasing invitation or media attention, and who might be said to be still in the process of mastering their practice. However, 'emerging' is a hard word to define in this context, and all applicants must state why they classify themselves as an emerging artist through the application form.

* Professional Career/Professional Practice: while there is no one definition of a professional artist, we would suggest that it relates to someone who is either making a living from or attempting to make a living from their work, and/or who is a member of a professional representative body such as: Visual Artists Ireland, Film Director's Ireland, Association of Irish Composers etc.).

One Bursary of €1,000 will be made to the successful applicant.

Any queries relating to the Bursary may also be directed to Eva by email, including requests for assistance with filling out the application form.

We aim to communicate final decisions by mid-April 2022. Should a large volume of applicants be received, this timeline may be adjusted to provide additional time to review all applications. All applicants will be kept notified of any changes or updates.

Health & Safety

Applicants should understand our commitment to holding events in line with current government guidelines around Covid-19 and our own Health & Safety policy and Child and Vulnerable Adult Safeguarding protocols. Risk assessments will be carried out for any in-person events and relevant documents such as safety statements will be required from the successful applicant and any artist involved.

Equality, Human Rights, and Diversity

Please note that Age & Opportunity welcomes applications from all communities, and particularly encourages artists from underrepresented communities to apply

In line with the Public Sector Equality and Human Rights Duty, and in line with our core funders, Age & Opportunity is committed to ensuring that it takes positive policy measures and commitments to promote equality of opportunity for all those living in Ireland, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, civil or family status, religion, age, disability, race or membership of the Traveller Community. Furthermore, Age & Opportunity notes the ground of socioeconomic background as a further basis for which equality of opportunity must be guaranteed.

As such, Age & Opportunity is committed to increasing the diversity and inclusion of our work.

More Information

Age & Opportunity

Age & Opportunity is the national organisation that provides a range of opportunities for older people who want to get more involved in arts and culture, sport and physical activity, civic engagement and personal development.

Our vision is an Ireland where all older people can be more active, more visible, more creative, more connected, more confident, more often.

We work with local communities and organisations across the country to run a range of programmes and activities in three key areas:

- Age & Opportunity Arts provides opportunities for us to engage more in arts and cultural events and initiatives
- Age & Opportunity Active is designed to get us more active and participate in recreational sport and physical activity
- Age & Opportunity Engage offers a range of workshops and learning initiatives for our own personal development as well as opportunities for us to play an active role in our community.

Age & Opportunity Arts is our dedicated arts and culture programme running throughout the year in local communities all over Ireland. We host a range of different creative initiatives including the annual Bealtaine Festival which takes place throughout the month of May, and is delivered in partnership with communities and organisations nationwide. Bealtaine is Ireland's national festival which uniquely celebrates the arts and creativity as we age.
