

Professional Development Artist Award 2024

Deadline: 5pm, Friday March 22nd 2024

Information for applicants

Age & Opportunity believes that the arts is particularly important and beneficial as we age, and has long been a supporter of older artists.

The Bealtaine Festival is 29 years old in 2024 and is Ireland's only festival dedicated to celebrating the arts and creativity as we age. Part of our work involves supporting the participation and representation of older people in the arts, including supporting and giving a platform to older artists. Similarly, we devise professional development training for artists across generations, as well as supporting arts networks and best practice through partnerships with Dance Ireland, Visual Artists Ireland, Irish Theatre Institute, First Music Contact, Irish Writers Centre and more.

Professional Development Artist Award

Age & Opportunity recognises that artistic practice is a lifelong journey and demands continued upskilling and training.

The Age & Opportunity Professional Development Artist Award aims to celebrate lifelong learning by encouraging and supporting *professional older artists who wish to further develop their career and practice through specific activities to meet their development needs (training, research, etc.). It is not intended to support formal third or fourth level education. The award also aims to publicly demonstrate the value of older artists.

The following further guidelines are taken from the Arts Council of Ireland's Professional Development Award Guidelines.

Examples of Professional Development opportunities might include:

- Creative development supports, such as participation in workshops, specialist courses, master classes, research projects, residencies, coaching/mentoring, attendance at conferences/seminars;
- Career development supports, such as strategic and/or financial planning, promotional, presentation or digital skills, proposal writing.

Please note that there is a separate Emerging Artist Award for those who wish to simply continue their practice.

Notes on terms

While there is no one definition of a professional artist, there are a number of guideline criteria that can be used:

1. Do you work in any of the areas of visual art, architecture, music, media, performing art, literature, circus, community art, traditional art, public art, film and spectacle or related areas?

2. Do you have regular practice as an artist?
3. Do you earn or attempt to earn a living from your art practice?
4. Do you have a degree or diploma from a 3rd level institution?

For this award in particular, we are requesting that applications are a member of a professional representative body such as: Visual Artists Ireland, Film Director's Ireland, Association of Irish Composers or equivalent, or that their CV clearly shows a professional career.

One award of €1000 will be made to the successful applicant.

additional time to review all applications. All applicants will be kept notified of any changes or updates.

Health & Safety

Applicants should understand that they are responsible for their own Health & Safety during any activity undertaken associated with this award, though Age & Opportunity's Safety Statement will be shared for information. The successful recipient will be required to sign a short contract form that asks for adherence to general Health & Safety advice.

Equality, Human Rights, and Diversity

Please note that Age & Opportunity welcomes applications from all communities, and particularly encourages artists from underrepresented communities to apply.

In line with the Public Sector Equality and Human Rights Duty, and in line with our core funders, Age & Opportunity is committed to ensuring that it takes positive policy measures and commitments to promote equality of opportunity for all those living in Ireland, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, civil or family status, religion, age, disability, race or membership of the Traveller Community. Furthermore, Age & Opportunity notes the ground of socioeconomic background as a further basis for which equality of opportunity must be guaranteed.

As such, Age & Opportunity is committed to increasing the diversity and inclusion of our work.

More Information

Age & Opportunity

Age & Opportunity is the national organisation that provides a range of opportunities for older people who want to get more involved in arts and culture, sport and physical activity, civic engagement and personal development.

Our vision is an Ireland where all older people can be more active, more visible, more creative, more connected, more confident, more often.

We work with local communities and organisations across the country to run a range of programmes and activities in three key areas:

- Age & Opportunity Arts provides opportunities for us to engage more in arts and cultural events and initiatives
- Age & Opportunity Active is designed to get us more active and participate in recreational sport and physical activity
- Age & Opportunity Engage offers a range of workshops and learning initiatives for our own personal development as well as opportunities for us to play an active role in our community.

Age & Opportunity Arts is our dedicated arts and culture programme running throughout the year in local communities all over Ireland. We host a range of different creative initiatives including the annual Bealtaine Festival which takes place throughout the month of May, and is delivered in partnership with communities and organisations nationwide. Bealtaine is Ireland's national festival which uniquely celebrates the arts and creativity as we age.
