A Message From The President Of Ireland

"Mar Uachtarán na hÉireann, may I send my very best wishes to all those who will be participating in this year's Bealtaine Festival.

For over 30 years, Bealtaine Festival has been enabling and empowering people to enjoy the arts and express their creativity as they get older.

Age should place no boundaries on our imagination or our creativity. It is through continuing to express ourselves that we can ensure we retain and build the skills, experiences and exposure that can lead to a rich creative life. In building an inclusive society, it is important that each generation shares their experience and learns from each other's lives.

I encourage everyone reading this programme to find an event that interests them, be it as part of the national programme or at a local level, and to join with their community in continuing to make Bealtaine such an important month in the year.

Congratulations to everyone taking part in this year's events, and enjoy the festivities."

"Ba mhaith liom, mar Uachtarán na hÉireann gach, rath a ghuigh orthu siúd a bhéas rannpháirteach i bhFéile na Bealtaine i mbliana.

Tá Féile na Bealtaine ag tabhairt deis do dhaoine sult a bhaint as na healaíona agus a gcruthaitheacht a chur in iúl agus iad ag éirí níos sine, le níos mó ná 30 bliain.

Níor cheart go gcuirfeadh aois teora dá laghad leis an tsamhlaíocht nó an gcruthaitheacht. Is nuair a leanann muid ár gcur ár bhféin in iúl a éiríonn linn blaiseadh de scileanna agus taithí éagsúla agus saol saibhir cruthaitheach a fhorbairt agus a chaomhnú. Tá sé tábhachtach, agus sochaí chuimsitheach á tógáil againn, go mbíonn ar chumas chuile ghlúin a dtaithí a roinnt agus foghlaim óna chéile.

Molaim daoibhse atá ag léamh an chláir seo imeacht a spreagann sibh a roghnú; bíodh sé mar chuid den chlár náisiúnta nó go háitiúil; agus tacú le bhur bpobal ag ceiliúradh tábhacht mhí na Bealtaine.

Comhghairdeas ó chroí le chuile dhuine atá ag glacadh páirt in imeachtaí na bliana seo, bainigí sult agus tairbhe as an bhféile."

Catherine Connolly
Uachtarán na hÉireann
President of Ireland

We hope this Flagship Bealtaine weekend finds you rested and ready for this month of renewal, growth and new beginnings. As we welcome the light after winter, dive into Bealtaine's rich mix of performances, workshops, discussions and exhibitions from Ireland's incredible pool of artists and makers.

Nationwide Dawn & Dusk Chorus

The Dawn Chorus is a nationwide choral event in which older people come together with a singing group in their locality and sing at dawn to welcome the day and the season. In the final year of our 'Lust for Life' theme, we invite groups to reflect this in their song choices. The nationwide and flagship Dawn chorus events are presented in partnership with Sing Ireland. See bealtaine.ie for an arrangement of 'Lust for Life' for singing groups.

Big Bealtaine Tea Party:
Songs, Words & Welcome

Irish Museum of Modern Art
2pm – 4.30pm | Tickets: €15
ISL provided

This year's Tea Party, curated by our three Citizen Curators, Joe Maguire, Madge O'Callaghan and Peter Clarke, celebrates creativity at every age - spotlighting late-life debuts, reinvention, and practices sustained across decades. Inspired by the energy of Iggy Pop's Lust for Life, the event reframes ageing as vitality, not decline. Featuring debut writer Tom Dredge, storyteller Ruth Marshall and actor Bríd Ní Neachtain, and joined by Bealtaine Dawn Chorus Flagship Choir, Hands in Harmony from Limerick and Terenure College Community Choir. Supported by IMMA. Writers: find out more about the open mic for this event at bealtaine.ie.

Standing on the Shoulders of Giants

Literature /In Conversation

ILFD Le Fanu - Merrion Square
6pm - 7pm | Tickets €14/€12

The 9th edition of this special partnership between Bealtaine and International Literature Festival Dublin celebrating the influence writers have on each other across generations. Entrepreneurial playwright and founder/co-director of THISISPOPBABY Phillip McMahon, is in conversation with writer/director Gerry Stembridge. They will discuss how they met via Dublin Youth Theatre back in 1997 and the 'je ne sais quoi' which inspired Phillip to follow in Gerry's footsteps as a theatre artist.

National Arts in Nursing Homes Day

Nationwide

National Arts in Nursing Homes Day celebrates the creativity of people in nursing homes and care settings and the integral role the arts fulfills in supporting them. It takes place on the third Friday of May each year, as part of the Bealtaine Festival. In partnership with Nursing Homes Ireland.

Won't Be Told

Circus

Throughout May – see calendar on page 23 for dates and venues

Annoying, talented, and stubbornly skilled, Ken and Tina from Tumble Circus present Won't Be Told, a rebellious circus adventure that rages against the dying of the light. Their world is packed with wild acrobatics, absurd juggling, and hysterical comedy, all delivered with the fierce determination of performers who refuse to go quietly. This is circus with attitude, heart, and a glorious refusal to behave.

Each year Bealtaine supports tours which embody the spirit of the festival through open calls.

We Are An Archipelago

Spoken word/Music

Throughout May – see calendar on page 23 for dates and venues

Based on the true story of ninety-nine-year-old Bill, who returns to his island home after eighty years away, We Are An Archipelago explores a unique friendship, homecoming, ageing, and the courage to embrace change at any point in life. Told through poetry and live music, the piece features spoken word poet Erin Fornoff and singer-songwriter Patrick O'Laoghaire (I Have a Tribe), with multi-instrumentalist Oisin Walsh-Peelo (O Deer) and drummer Dominic Mullan.

Éireann and I present 'This Land Bears Our Name'

Showcase

Temple Bar Gallery + Studios @ Studio 6
Opening: 28 May, 11am, Runs 28-30 May, 11am – 6pm

Éireann and I is a community archive and memory work platform dedicated to chronicling stories of Black life in Ireland. Initiated and led by Beulah Ezeugo and Joselle Ntumba, the project creates spaces for migrants to engage with archives and explore practices of memory work through participatory workshops, publications, and installations. This special commission for Bealtaine explores older migrants' relationships with Dublin city with newly produced images made during a sound walking workshop, together with images from participants' personal archives.

Place, Pace & Practice: A lifetime of making

Artist Discussion

Temple Bar Gallery + Studios
12pm – 1.15pm | FREE booking required.

Join us for a conversation between visual artists Laura Fitzgerald, Geraldine O'Neill, filmmaker Pat Murphy; chaired by the writer and visual artist Sara Baume, as they discuss a lifetime of making art and navigating life as an artist across countries, cities and countrysides.

Retired? You Must Be Joking!

Ambassador's Choice

Project Arts Centre - CUBE
1pm - 2.15pm | Pay What You Can - see page 25

Join us for an afternoon of lively conversation on art, ageing, visibility and the ideas that matter now, hosted by Bealtaine Ambassadors, writer and former politician Liz McManus and musician Mike Hanrahan. Marking their final year as Ambassadors, Liz and Mike each invite one of their favourite collaborators and thinkers to the table: Fiction Laureate Éilís Ní Dhuibhne and broadcaster and musician Kieran Hanrahan (also Mike's brother!). Expect thoughtful exchanges, personal reflections, and plenty of wit and style.

Bealtaine Film Retrospective

Screening & Panel

Project Arts Centre - SPACE UPSTAIRS
2pm - 3.30pm | Pay What You Can - see page 25

Another chance to see some of the short films commissioned by the Festival, on the big screen. Featuring Where Do All The Old Gays Go by Cathy Dunne, Over/Pass by Shaun Dunne and Jessica Kennedy, Filmpoem by Anita Groener and Enda Wyley and Pom Boyd's iconic Windy Lady. The films will be followed by a panel discussion with some of the artists and participants.

Sax (No) Drugs & Rock N Roll

Music/Discussion

Project Arts Centre – SPACE UPSTAIRS
7.30pm - 9pm | Tickets: €20

Irish Times arts journalist Nadine O'Regan hosts this hot ticket event with singer Mary Coughlan, Barry Devlin (bass/Horslips), and Keith Donald (sax/Moving Hearts). Expect an entertaining, honest, and revealing conversation with three of the most iconic figures in contemporary Irish music about their professional successes, personal lives 'on the road,' and varied tales of addiction.

FAICT OR FAICTION
Literature/Discussion

Project Arts Centre – CUBE
1pm – 2.15pm| Tickets: €15

A panel discussion chaired by Conor Kostick on the use of science fiction in literature, and on influential sci-fi or speculative fiction books which have informed real life and continue to spark the imagination. With AI becoming more ubiquitous in our daily lives, what does this mean for writers and readers?
Panel includes writers Jan Carson, Joanna Walsh and Derek O'Connor.

Choreographing Autonomy

Dance/Discussion

Project Arts Centre – SPACE UPSTAIRS
3.30pm – 4.45pm | Pay What You can - see page 25

A conversation between dance artist Philip Connaughton and visual artist Marie Brett on their collaboration in the making of Marie's film Yes, But Do You Care? which uses dance as a medium to illustrate dementia experiences. The eleven-minute film will be screened as part of this event.

Johnny Got a Bus Pass

Music / Theatre

Project Arts Centre - CUBE
5.30pm – 6.30pm | Tickets: €15

Little John Nee, one of Ireland's iconic live entertainers, proves that ageing doesn't mean opting out — it means showing up and playing louder where it matters. Funny, heartfelt, musical, and celebratory memoir, state-of-the-nation and masterclass of the joys of being an elder punk.

Paul Cleary - Up Close & Personal

Music/Conversation

Project Arts Centre – SPACE UPSTAIRS
7pm – 8.30pm | Tickets: €20

One of Ireland's most successful singer/songwriters, Paul's legendary band, The Blades, was powered by a rich and memorable songbook including all-time classics Ghost of a Chance, Downmarket, and Revelations of Heartbreak. Fueled by Paul's Ringsend roots, an iconic voice, and heartfelt musical poetry, the band remain as dynamic and relevant today as they continue to attract new fans and packout venues nationwide. Paul is in conversation with broadcaster/musician Tom Dunne (Something Happens).

We envision an Ireland where older age is recognised as a time of opportunity and where all older people can be active, visible, creative, connected and confident about ageing.

Age & Opportunity is the national organisation working to enhance wellbeing for older people through participation in sport and physical activity, arts and creative engagement, personal development, community collaboration and active citizenship.

The Bealtaine Festival, an Age & Opportunity Arts initiative, is one of our flagship events. The festival continues to grow with the support and collaboration of our partners and hundreds of organisers throughout the country, as well as all those who attend a Bealtaine event. We are grateful to all those who organised events and look forward to another creative and inspiring year of Bealtaine Festival.

Meet our Bealtaine Citizen Curators 2026

Over the past year, we have been working with three citizen curators who were interested in finding out more about how the festival programmed events and contributing to the 2026 festival.

Peter Clarke is a poet and workshop participant at the Irish Writers Centre and elsewhere. A Bealtaine Writers' Group member since 2008, he founded MARA Poets in 2023. He holds an MA from Manchester Metropolitan University and has been widely published and shortlisted.

Madge O'Callaghan works in social justice and founded Ireland's first hospital-based youth mental health advocacy service. Her poetry collection Positive Deviance reflects this work. She holds an MA from DCU, won Gold at the New York World Festival of Radio, and is pursuing a PhD at UL.

Joe Maguire, a retired IT professional, volunteers in Galway's arts community. He organises a weekly lunchtime cinema screening and supports major festivals including Galway Arts Festival, Cúirt, Galway Film Fleadh, and TULCA, with strong interests in literature and film.
